Instructions for Students

- Complete one form for each history fair entry (individual or group). Please print legibly.
- All requested information is required for each group member.
- You must provide a one-sentence summary of the topic of your entry.
Example: Our entry examines the impact of Spanish missions on Native Americans in the 16th century.
- The Compliance Statement must be signed by the group leader and his/her guardian and teacher.
- Return this form to your teacher or county coordinator by the assigned date.

COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

I affirm that the entry submitted for competition is original and was researched and developed during this school year. I have read the rules and entry guidelines in the National History Day Rule Book and understand that violation of these rules may result in the disqualification of my entry. I understand that by signing this form I give the Florida History Fair the right to use photographs and videos of myself and my project. I affirm that other members of my project team agree to the provisions in this paragraph.
